Re: In re Netflix Privacy Litigation, No. 5:11-cv-00379-EJD

I am writing to object to the settlement.

First, attorneys fees should not be more than 10%. If the attorneys find $900,000 is not adequate, they should pursue a different career and passed the litigation to hungrier attorneys now looking for work.

Second, there is no reason to direct most of the settlement money to donations. The individuals injured should be the recipients, not some judge-favored social clubs. The injured parties are readily identifiable. If multiple people are injured in an automobile or train accident, do we suddenly decide that the victims' money should go to some judge-favored social clubs because we found the defendant's actions offensive?

Yours truly,

Barbara Salys

A Class Action Settlement Could Affect You

Our records show that you were a current or former Netflix subscriber as of July 5, 2012. We are emailing to tell you about a Settlement that may affect your legal rights. Please read this email carefully. Go to www.VideoPrivacyClass.com for more information.

A Settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit that claims Netflix unlawfully kept and disclosed information, including record movies and TV shows its customers viewed. Netflix denies that it has done anything wrong.

What does the Settlement provide?

Netflix has agreed to change its data retention practices so that it separates (known as "decoupling") Entertainment Content Viewing (that is, movies and TV shows that someone watched) from identification information for those subscribers who have not been a Netflix subscriber for at least 365 days, with some exceptions.

In addition, Netflix will pay $9 million into a Settlement Fund to:

- Make donations to Court-approved not-for-profit organizations, institutions, or programs.
- Pay notice and settlement administration expenses.
- Pay attorneys' fees of up to 25% or $2.25 million of the Settlement Fund, plus up to $25,000 in expenses.
- Pay a total incentive award of $30,000 to the Named Plaintiffs.

Proposals from potential donation recipients will be sought, and, after consideration, recommendations will be made to the Court. A list of proposed donation recipients will be posted on the website.

Your Options

If you do nothing, you will remain in the Settlement and your rights will be affected. If you do not want to be included, you must exclude yourself by November 14, 2012. If you exclude yourself you will keep your right to sue Netflix about the claims in this lawsuit. If you remain in the Settlement, you can object to it by November 14, 2012.

The Court will hold a hearing on December 5, 2012 to consider any objections, whether to approve the Settlement, award attorneys' fees, or an incentive award. You can appear at the hearing, but you don't have to. You can hire your own attorney, at your own expense, to appear and speak for you at the hearing.
